By Senators Taylor (11th Dist.), Phillips, Wagg and Hodges—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20:

WHEREAS, The entire State of Florida deplors the failure of Congress to pass appropriate legislation in the past to control the flood situation of the great Mississippi Valley and sympathizes with that stricken area in its loss in property and life; and

WHEREAS, It has learned with interest of the convening in Chicago on June 2nd, 3rd and 4th, next, of one of the greatest peace time movements ever inaugurated in the history of the United States, "the Mississippi Valley Flood Control Congress," where ideas and proposals of delegates from different States will be sifted and discussed looking toward a complete control of the flood situation of the great Mississippi Valley, as a basis of presenting to the American Congress at its next session, plans for the safest and surest means of insuring this country against another such calamity; and

WHEREAS, Florida in a somewhat lesser way but in the same manner and through the same menace and with great loss of life was a sufferer from flood and storms, last year, and still has similar problems confronting it as the great Mississippi Valley; and

WHEREAS, Florida has appropriated by bonding itself for twenty million dollars, to try and lessen this danger of flood and storm in its great territory surrounding Lake Okeechobee, one of the largest fresh water lakes in the United States, control over which has already been assumed by the Federal Government, and which lake area was the scene of a very recent, great similar disaster attended by great loss of life, and which bonding was done in the hope that such expenditure of the State's public resources will make safer the lives and property of its citizens; therefore be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring, That Florida stands united behind this great forward movement of this Congress, assembling at Chicago on June 2nd, 3rd and 4th, in its efforts to devise ways to guide the Congress of the United States in safeguarding against flood and storm the lives and property of its people.

And in pursuance of this resolution the Governor of Florida is requested to appoint seven outstanding citizens of Florida to attend this conference of the "Mississippi Valley Flood Control Congress," with directions, under this resolution, to do whatever is necessary to do as representatives of Florida to this congress in furthering the aims of this Congress in devising ways and means for the control of floods wherever they recur in the United States, and that a copy of this resolution, signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State, and under the Great Seal of the State of Florida, with a list of the citizens so appointed as representatives of Florida to this Congress be attached to this resolution and handed to the Chairman of said Committee as their authority to act for this State in this great forward movement in the cause of humanity in the control of the flood situation of the great Mississippi Valley and wherever they may recur within the boundaries of the United States.

Resolved further, That this resolution be spread upon the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Taylor (11th Dist.) moved to waive the rules and that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20 be read the second time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.

By permission—

Mr. Hodges introduced Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21—

By Senators Walker and Hodges—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21:

WHEREAS, There is situated about twenty miles south of Tallahassee, and in Wakulla County, Florida, the Harbor of Saint Marks, which before the Civil War was one of the most important harbors on the Gulf coast and which is still available for the uses of commerce and trade, if properly dredged, but which has not been used since the Civil War because of obstruction placed in the mouth of the harbor in the blockade of that port; and

WHEREAS, Congress is interesting itself in the development of harbors along the Florida sea coast and has recently sent an engineer to make some inspection of this port; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Florida, the House concurring, Do invite the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress and the Chairman of the Committee on Reclamation and Drainage, and the Chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, to visit Tallahassee, the capital of the State, and inspect the port and harbor of St. Marks during the Christmas recess of Congress, 1927, and that a copy of this Resolution, signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State, under the great seal of the State of Florida, be sent the Chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress, the Chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee and the Chairman of the Committee on Reclamation and Drainage, and that a copy also be sent to General Jabwin, Chief of Staff, and that he be invited to accompany the members of these committees for this visit and inspection. Be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That a copy of this Resolution be spread upon the Journals of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Hodges moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21 be read the second time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And the Resolution was read the second time.

Mr. Hodges moved to adopt Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21.

Which was agreed to.

And the Resolution was adopted.

And the action of the Senate was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Taylor (11th Dist.) moved that the rules be waived and that Senate Concurrent Resolutions Nos. 20 and 21 be immediately certified to the House of Representatives.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And it was so ordered.

Mr. Whitaker moved to waive the rules and the Senate do now take up and consider House Bill No. 245.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And—

House Bill No. 245:

A bill to be entitled An Act providing for the creation of a State Board of Public Welfare of five members, two of whom shall be women, to be appointed by the Governor, fixing their terms of office, prescribing their duties, authorizing the employment of a secretary, who shall be known as Commissioner of Welfare, and an assistant secretary, who shall be known as Director of Child Welfare, and making an appropriation for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

Was taken up and read the second time in full.

Mr. Hodges offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 245:

In Section 2, line 2, strike out the words after the word "Tallahassee" the following: "or at such other place as may be determined by the board."

Mr. Hodges moved the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Hodges offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 245:

Make Section 4 read as follows:

"Section 4. Said board shall pass annually on the fitness of every semi-public or private agency engaged in receiving and caring for affected, dependent, or neglected, or delinquent children and including the maternity homes, and boarding houses for infants under three years of age, and agencies placing children out in private homes, and if a question of their fitness is raised by said board the matter may be determined by the circuit court sitting in chancery. Nothing in this bill shall be taken to apply to institutions under the control of the board of commissioners of state institutions."

Mr. Hodges moved the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Whitaker moved that the rules be further waived and that House Bill No. 245 as amended be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And House Bill No. 245, as amended, was read the third time in full.

Upon call of the roll on the passage of the bill, the vote was:

Nays—Mr. President—1.

So the bill, as amended, passed, title as stated.

And the same was ordered to be certified to the House of Representatives under the rule.

Mr. Malone moved to waive the rules and the Senate do now take up and consider Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 190.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And—

House Bill No. 190:

A bill to be entitled An Act abolishing the Caloosahatchee Improvement District and repealing Chapter 10437,

Acts of 1925, Laws of Florida, entitled "An Act to establish Caloosahatchee Improvement District in this State and define its boundaries; to create a Board of Commissioners for said district and to define its powers; authorizing the improvement of the Caloosahatchee River and other natural waterways, the construction of canals, dikes, drains, reservoirs and other works for the reclamation, improvement and benefit of the lands and other property embraced in said district, and to levy assessments of taxes upon the lands and other property embraced in said District and to provide for the collection of the same, and to enforce the collection of such assessments; and to authorize the Board of Commissioners of said District to borrow money and to issue bonds and dispose of the same to procure money to carry out the provisions of this Act; to prevent injury to any works constructed under this Act and to provide a penalty for violating such provisions."

Was taken up and read the second time.

And—

Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 190:

A bill to be entitled An Act abolishing Caloosahatchee Improvement District and Repealing Chapter 10437, Acts of 1925, Laws of Florida, entitled:

"An Act to establish Caloosahatchee Improvement District in this State and define its boundaries; to create a Board of Commissioners for said district and to define its powers; authorizing the improvement of the Caloosahatchee River and other natural waterways, the construction of canals, dikes, drains, reservoirs and other works for the reclamation, improvement and benefit of the lands and other property embraced in said district and to levy assessments of taxes upon the lands and other property embraced in said district and to provide for the collection of the same, and to enforce the collection of such assessments; and to authorize the Board of Commissioners of said District to borrow money and to issue bonds and dispose of the same to procure money to carry out the provisions of this act; to prevent injury to any works constructed under this act and to provide a penalty for violating such provision."

And providing for the winding up of the affairs of the Caloosahatchee, etc.

Was read the first time.

Mr. Etheredge moved to waive the rules and that the Committee Substitute be read the second time.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And the Substitute was read the second time in full.

Mr. Etheredge moved to adopt the Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 190 in lieu of the original bill.

Which was agreed to.

And the Committee Substitute was adopted in lieu of the original bill.

Mr. Etheredge offered the following amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 190:

Strike out Section 27 and insert the following in lieu thereof:

"Section 27. This Act shall become effective when it shall have been ratified by a majority vote of the drainage and reclamation taxes, both acreage and ad valorem, paid on land in said Caloosahatchee Improvement District. That each taxpayer shall be entitled to one vote for each dollar and major fraction of a dollar of taxes paid for the year immediately preceding the year in which such election shall be held. That such election shall be held on the 28th day of June, 1927. That it shall be the duty of the several boards of county commissioners of the counties in which any portion of the Caloosahatchee Improvement District lies, to prepare for the holding of such election by designating the polling places at which such election shall be held and naming the inspectors and clerks for such election, and shall give notice of such election by publishing same for two weeks immediately before the day of election. Such notice shall give the day of election, the polling place or places and the names of inspectors and clerks. The county commissioners of the several counties shall have prepared and printed a sufficient number of ballots to be used. The form of the ballot shall be substantially as follows:

".....	$.....
(Name of Voter)	(Amount of taxes paid.)

"(Recite title of this Act.)

".....Votes in favor of this Act becoming a law.

.....Votes against this Act becoming a law."

The taxpayer shall be required to write his name at the top of the ballot and write in the amount of taxes paid for the preceding year, and shall be entitled to one vote for each dollar of taxes paid and major fraction of a dollar. Upon closing the polls the inspectors and clerks shall canvass the votes cast and shall make return thereof to the said several Board of County Commissioners, giving the number of votes cast for and against said Act. The inspectors and clerks shall lock all ballots cast in the ballot boxes and return the same to the Board of County Commissioners.

The Boards of County Commissioners shall cause the returns of such election to be recorded in the minutes of the Boards. Should a majority of the votes cast be in favor of said Act, this Act shall be in full force and effect.

If a majority of the votes cast be against said Act, then said Act shall be null and void and of no effect.

Mr. Etheredge moved the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was not agreed to.

Mr. Malone moved that the rules be further waived and that Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 190 be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate substitute for House Bill No. 190, with title above stated, was read the third time in full.

Pending the passage of the bill—

On motion of Mr. Whitaker, the time of recess was extended to 1:10 o'clock p. m.

On the passage of the bill the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—Senators Dell, Edge, Gary, Glynn, Hale, Harrison, Hodges, McCall, McClellan, Malone, Parrish, Phillips, Putnam, Rowe, Scales, Singletary, Turnbull, Walker, Watson, Waybright, Whitaker—21.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19:

WHEREAS, All States and Nations honor their great men; and

WHEREAS, The late Dr. Joseph Yates Porter was one of Florida's great and good men, and deserves and earned appropriate recognition by the State Legislature of his valued services as State Health Officer for many years; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Porter died at his home in Key West,

Florida, March 17, 1927, in the same room in which he was born eighty years ago. He was a most worthy citizen, an eminent physician and a devoted husband and father. He organized Florida's State Board of Health, and served with great distinction as State Health Officer for many years, and was one of the first to treat the yellow fever scourge upon the theory that the germ is transmitted by the mosquito; and

WHEREAS, He served at a great sacrifice to himself, one session, that of 1901, in the Florida House of Representatives, his object being to enact laws that would assist the State Board of Health more readily to prohibit and stamp out contagious diseases, and to secure better sanitary conditions. It is largely by his efforts that Florida was cleaned of yellow fever and made immune from that terrible disease; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, That in the death of Dr. Joseph Yates Porter, the State of Florida has lost one of its most worthy and prominent citizens; one who always responded to any call for his able services; and who, by his wonderful work, saved, and in many instances, prolonged the lives of many citizens of his native State.

RESOLVED, FURTHER, That this resolution be spread upon the Senate and House Journals, and that the Secretary of State be directed to forward a copy of the same under the great seal of the State, to the family of the deceased.

Very respectfully,

FRANK WEBB,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19, contained in the above message, was referred to the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

Also—

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

House Concurrent Resolution No. 16:

Endorsing the creation of the Southland Institution of Learning as a Memorial to the Women of the Confederacy.

WHEREAS, the United Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans of Texas, have inaugurated a movement in the name of the "Southland Memorial Association," having for its purpose the creation of a great Southland Institute of learning, embracing all departments of science, art and literature, as a memorial to the "Women of the Confederacy," which movement has been thrice approved by the United Confederate Veterans and Sons in general convention assembled, and endorsed by the United Daughters of the Confederacy;

AND WHEREAS, the establishment, maintenance and operation of such an institution on a non-partisan, non-sectional, and non-sectarian basis in some central Southern State for the purpose mentioned, would redound to the honor and glory of the South, and all persons participating in its creation, and be a fitting tribute of love, respect and gratitude of the South to the memory of that womanhood who performed such sacrificial service for four long years in behalf of their Southland;

AND WHEREAS, no sufficient memorial has ever been erected to fitly commemorate the service rendered by the "Women of the Confederacy", Therefore be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That it is the sense of this body that the several Southern States, whose daughters performed such sacrificial service in behalf of their loved Southland, should take united action and cooperate with each other in bringing to fruition the efforts of the SOUTHLAND MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION to create a memorial to the "Women of the Confederacy" that will be without a rival in all history; an honor to the entire South, and a mecca to which our sons and daughters can come for ages.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the State of Florida, through its Legislature, expresses its willingness to join her sister States in performing a sacred duty to the mothers, sisters, wives and daughters of the Confederate soldiers in leaving to their posterity evidence of the South's gratitude for the service so generously rendered in their behalf, and invite the Governors of all Southern States to severally appoint one of their sons to serve on a committee to devise ways and means of carrying these resolutions into effect, and would be glad to have them report to his Excellency, the Governor of Florida, the names of their respective appointees.

RESOLVED FURTHER, That a copy of these resolutions, if adopted, be sent by the Secretary of State to Gen. S. O. Moodie, Vice President of the Southland Memorial Association, Houston, Texas, under the Great Seal of the State.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,
